Is Feeling Bully.

Special Correspondence to Morning Journal
Santa Fe, Aug. 2.—Theodore Roosevelt Sandoval, the Pueblo papoose at whose christening the Painted Desert at San Diego, the ex-president stood sponsor, is reported to be doing well after a slight indisposition. It will be remembered that while president, Roosevelt was godfather in the cathedral at Santa Fe at the christening of Theodore Roosevelt Armijo, son of the then assistant postmaster George W. Armijo, one of his Rough Riders.

Congressman W. R. Green, Mrs. Green and daughter, Margaret, were visitors at the New Mexico building last Friday. A special trainload of members of the Genealogical Association of America from New York became especially interested when informed that many New Mexico families trace their genealogy back four and five hundred years and more to Spain, that old landmarks in New Mexico date back prior to the coming of the Mayflower and that mission churches existed in New Mexico 200 years before the first mission church in California.

Prominent Visitors.
Col. J. B. Sanborn of the Illinois national guard was a distinguished visitor. Other prominent guests were H. F. Sink, a wealthy rancher and cottonseed oil dealer, Tex. David Schwab, wealthy New York importer, A. C. Downs, champion high board diver of the world, H. M. Bach and family and R. E. Lyden of New York, prominent in financial circles in the east, J. Gould, financier of Winchester, Mass., John Powers of Pittsfield, Mass., Robert McVicar, cattle and grain dealer of Wichita, Kan., W. M. Johnson, prominent business man of Chicago, John M. Rupp, a wealthy shirt and hosiery dealer of Fairfield, Ill., and Hugh J. Ward, J. C. Williamson and D. M. Davidson, wealthy business men of Sidney, Australia.

Members of the Alpha Xi national fraternity were among the visitors on Friday. Some 500 individuals from Annapolis, who had made the cruise from the Atlantic through the Panama canal under Admiral Pulliam, visited the New Mexico building while the last of the trip, to Missouri, and Wisconsin, on which they came, were being in the harbor.

Col. H. H. Bots and Mrs. Bots have returned to Silver City from San Diego, loud in their praises of

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—In view of the "centric" performance of the market last week, with its furious speculation in a few volatile favorites and evidences of their instability at the high prices to which they were elevated, traders were in doubt at the opening today which way to turn. There was no inclination to attempt a further speculative marking up of the war specialties. Public buying of these issues fell off and the amount of orders accumulating over the week-end was the smallest of several weeks. The initial tendency was to take profit, when opportunity offered, rather than add to the long side in speculative holdings and the rather quiet opening was marked by small changes.

The big stronger presently, as it became apparent that the war specialties were holding well and there was no great pressure in any quarter. Trading was no longer concentrated in a group of favorites, but expanded to all classes of stocks. A comprehensive list followed, continuing through the day with no great setback. The war stocks made good gains as did copper, fertilizers, oil shares and further industries. In the railroad division there was a broad and substantial uptick which was regarded by 10.2 percent, continuing to the close as one of the most encouraging developments of the day. Total sales were 600,000 shares.

Further trade reports of a favorable nature contributed to the strength of the market. These reports came not only from industries, but from various other lines. Railroad stocks benefited from increasing business as well as from the good showing of June returns. Pennsylvania advanced on an increase of more than $1,000,000 in operating income for June.

The copper shares were exceptionally strong and active. Although no notable change occurred in the rates for copper metal, there were reports that the market for the metal was being made by the large producers. Speculative bonds moved irregularly. There was a further substantial advance in the copper and Westinghouse Electric convertible bonds. The market for oil shares showed some sensitiveness to liquidation from abroad. Total sales per value $2,400,000.

U. S. bonds were unchanged on call. Closing prices:

CHAVES COUNTY MAN
HAS EXCITING TIME
WITH TWO RATTLERS

Santa Fe, Aug. 2.—The champion snake story comes from near Allie Chaves county. Dan Scott, while riding over the plains country, heard a warning rattle and leaped from his horse to kill the rattlesnake. He attacked one snake another attack him and caught him in his heavy riding boots. Scott fell over backwards kicking up his heels and tossing the rattler into his lap, but he managed to get away from it by rolling around. However, the snake bit him and began striking at him before he could get up to protect himself and he held up the sole of one shoe to break its blow each time.

When he remained his feet he killed both rattlers. He then took off his boots and found two spots of blood on his leg where the skin was turning green around the wounds. He rode twenty-two miles to the nearest doctor and although his leg had turned green to the hips, a few hours of rest and treatment brought him around all right. Settlers in the plains country report more rattlesnakes as well as other reptiles this year than at any previous time.

The Clerk Guaranteed It.
"A customer came into my store the other day and said to one of my clerks, 'have you anything that will cure diarrhoea?' and my clerk went and got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and said to him, 'if this does not cure you, I will not charge you a cent for it.' So he took it home and came back in a day or two and said he was cured," writes J. H. Berry & Co., Salt Creek, Va. Obtainable everywhere.
